Media Availability Scheduled for Auction of Unabomber's Personal Effects

WASHINGTON – The personal effects of Ted Kaczynski, aka the Unabomber, will be sold via an online auction by the U.S. Marshals beginning May 18. Proceeds from the auction will be used to compensate Kaczynski's victims.

WHAT: Media availability of Kaczynski's personal effects up for auction. Stand-ups will be available with Terry Turchie, the FBI Inspector who led the federal task force that captured the Unabomber in 1996, and retired FBI agent Dr. Kathleen Puckett, the behavioral expert on the case. The U.S. Marshal for the Eastern District of California, Albert Najera, will also be available for interviews.

WHERE: Peachtree Summit Federal Building, 401 W. Peachtree St., 1st Floor, Atlanta, GA 30308

WHEN: Wednesday, 10 a.m. - noon EDT (It is suggested to arrive as early as 8 a.m. to get through federal security requirements, including magnetometers and X-rays of property.)

TO REGISTER: E-mail Tonya Dillard of the General Services Administration at tonyar.dillard@gsa.gov. Include name, news agency or affiliation, and the names of persons accompanying you.

PARKING: Available across the street

ELECTRICAL OUTLETS: Limited number available. Your own source of power supply is recommended. Bring surge protectors and extension cords.

SECURITY PROCEDURES: Federal building security procedures in place. A government-issued ID card is required for entry. Bring your media credentials.

The U.S. Marshals Service occupies a uniquely central position in the federal justice system. It is the enforcement arm of the federal courts, involved in virtually every federal law enforcement initiative.
